

VERBAL ABILITY FINAL REVISION

Cloze passage 1:

Our society has changed rapidly, but the college narrative has stayed the same for many years. It is important to let students know they have many____1_____. College is not the best fit for everyone and is not the only path, and that's okay. Also, going today does not____2_____a great job right after graduation. Learning is a never ending journey that doesn't stop. College can be critical especially for certain trained skills and potential future earnings but it is not the single journey to success today.

The college story should match the world we live in today- one filled options, different ways to learn and work study programs that can____3_____students and leave them without debt. Our students need to start above the ground- they should not come out of college at such a young age with a pile of debt, stress and worry.

Q1. Which of these fits blank 1?

Ops: A: learning

B: careers

Our society has changed rapidly, but the college narrative has stayed the same for many years. It is important to let students know they have many ____1____. College is not the best fit for everyone and is not the only path, and that's okay. Also, going today does not ____2____ a great job right after graduation. Learning is a never ending journey that doesn't stop. College can be critical especially for certain trained skills and potential future earnings but it is not the single journey to success today.

The college story should match the world we live in today- one filled options, different ways to learn and work study programs that can ____3____ students and leave them without debt. Our students need to start above the ground- they should not come out of college at such a young age with a pile of debt, stress and worry.

Q1. Which of these fits blank 1?

Ops: A: learning

B: careers

☒ C: choices

D: routes

Q2. Which of these fits blank 2?

B: careers

C: choices

D: routes

Q2. Which of these fits blank 2?

Ops: A: make

B: benefit

✓ C: guarantee

Q3: Which of these fits blank 3?

Ops: A: ✓ benefit

B: hurt

C: harm

D: calm

2. Reading Comprehension:

For frontline caregivers, emotions have run high during the pandemic: anxiety about getting the virus and then exposing their families; fear of being re-deployed to jobs they had not previously done to treat a disease they've never seen; grief about the loss of patients, family members or colleagues; sadness about those who have lost their jobs or been furloughed. While we have seen the remarkable

Support for health care workers pouring in from communities across the country, less visible has been what leaders are doing within their own organizations to help their physicians, nurses, and the entire workforces cope.

To discover what these organization have done, and to learn from them, Press Ganey convened a virtual group of physicians, nurses, and other patient-care professionals from more than 50 organizations across 25 states who are leading efforts to support clinicians. Over the past 12 weeks, this "caregiver collaborative" has met virtually to discuss the unique challenges of frontline caregivers during the pandemic and share experiences and strategies. Topics have included caregiver safety, staffing, ethics, financial uncertainty, racial and social inequities, communication, physical health and emotional well-being.

Q1. According to the passage, what is one of the fears that frontline caregivers have?

entire workforces cope.

To discover what these organization have done, and to learn from them, Press Ganey convened a virtual group of physicians, nurses, and other patient-care professionals from more than 50 organizations across 25 states who are leading efforts to support clinicians. Over the past 12 weeks, this “caregiver collaborative” has met virtually to discuss the unique challenges of frontline caregivers during the pandemic and share experiences and strategies. Topics have included caregiver safety, staffing, ethics, financial uncertainty, racial and social inequities, communication, physical health and emotional well-being.

Q1. According to the passage, what is one of the fears that frontline caregivers have?

Ops: A: missing home

 B: grief about the loss of patients

C: fearing of losing their job

D: anxiety about dying

Q2: There is less visibility about what leaders are doing within their own organizations to help their physicians, nurses and the entire workforce cope.

Ops: A: False

Please move this window away from

Ops: A: missing home

B: grief about the loss of patients

C: fearing of losing their job

D: anxiety about dying

Q2: There is less visibility about what leaders are doing within their own organizations to help their physicians, nurses and the entire workforce cope.

Ops: A: False

✓ B: True

Q3: Who has shown remarkable support to health care workers?

Ops: A: Government bodies

✓ B: Communities across the country

C: Organizations across 25 states

Q4: Which of the topics was not included in the virtual meeting?

Please move this window away from

Q2: There is less visibility about what readers are doing within their own organizations to help their physicians, nurses and the entire workforce cope.

Ops: A: False

B: True

Q3: Who has shown remarkable support to health care workers?

Ops: A: Government bodies

B: Communities across the country

C: Organizations across 25 states

Q4: Which of the topics was not included in the virtual meeting?

Ops: A: ☒ Sacrifice

B: financial uncertainty

C: emotional well-being

D: staffing

Please move this
window away from

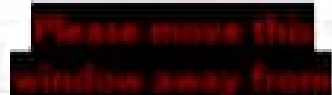

The road ambled through gentle hills and fields dotted with cows; out of one window, evergreen trees zipped past, while out the other, narrow beaches sprawled parallel to the road. I relaxed into the seat, allowing myself to be soothed by the landscape.

The car shuddered abruptly over a pothole. "There's just one thing, the roads aren't so good," Balci added with a shrug.

According to the Turkish Statistical Institute, Sinop province ranks poorly compared to the rest of the country in health and infrastructure. And yet Sinop has come in top for happiness in the Institute's Life Satisfaction Survey several years in a row. So, what is the secret?

Sinop is famous as the birthplace of the Ancient Greek philosopher Diogenes, who lived a beggar's life on these streets around 300BC. His lifestyle earned him the nickname 'the Cynic', a word derived from the Ancient Greek word for 'dog'. The philosopher is often credited with the founding of Cynicism – the belief that social conventions impede personal freedom and hinder one's path to the good life, while living according to nature is the quickest way to satisfaction.

"[Diogenes] found happiness in a life of simplicity in accord with nature – a life of challenging

Please move this
window away from

Sinop is famous as the birthplace of the Ancient Greek philosopher Diogenes, who lived a beggar's life on these streets around 300BC. His lifestyle earned him the nickname 'the Cynic', a word derived from the Ancient Greek word for 'dog'. The philosopher is often credited with the founding of Cynicism – the belief that social conventions impede personal freedom and hinder one's path to the good life, while living according to nature is the quickest way to satisfaction.

"[Diogenes] found happiness in a life of simplicity in accord with nature – a life of challenging those he met to enjoy what they had and care nothing for what they didn't have," explained Professor Stephen Voss at the Department of Philosophy at Boğaziçi University.

Diogenes chose to live with nothing but the clothes on his back and a barrel in which he slept, and used humor to critique religious practitioners; political leaders and others who adhered to what he believed were unnatural social orders.

I

According to local legend, Alexander the Great went to visit Diogenes and found him sitting outside. When asked whether he wanted anything from the king, the philosopher said, "You can stand aside and stop blocking the sunlight."

Please move this
window away from

Questions:

Q1: The reaction from Balci when the car bumped over a pothole points towards which side of the nature of Sinop natives?

Ops: A. Potholes are the only problematic issue in the city of Sinop.

B: Sinop natives tend to hide the problems of the city from outsiders.

C: The people of Sinop are frustrated with the problems of infrastructure in the city.

D: The people of Sinop are casual about the problems of infrastructure in the city.

Q2: The phrase 'unnatural social orders used in the second last paragraph are _____ in nature.

Ops: A: Critical

B: rhetorical

Please move this
window away from

Q1: The reaction from Balci when the car bumped over a pothole points towards which side of the nature of Sinop natives?

Ops: A: Potholes are the only problematic issue in the city of Sinop.

B: Sinop natives tend to hide the problems of the city from outsiders.

C: The people of Sinop are frustrated with the problems of infrastructure in the city.

D: The people of Sinop are casual about the problems of infrastructure in the city.

Q2: The phrase 'unnatural social orders used in the second last paragraph are _____ in nature.

Ops: A: Critical

B: rhetorical

C: approving

D: revolutionary

Q3: Which of the following would the author necessarily agree with?

C: approving

Please move this window away from

D: revolutionary

Q3: Which of the following would the author necessarily agree with?

1: Sinop has a panoramic landscape

2: Diogenes was an atheist by nature

3: The prosperity of the people of Sinop was majorly independent of monetary sta

Choose the correct answer from the given options:

tus.

Ops: A: 1 and 3 only

B: 1 and 2 only

C: All 1, 2 and 3

D: 1 only

Q4. Which of the following words is closest in meaning to the word Sprawled?

Please move this window away from

2: Diogenes was an atheist by nature

3: The prosperity of the people of Sinop was majorly independent of monetary status.

Choose the correct answer from the given options:

Ops: A: 1 and 3 only

B: 1 and 2 only

C: All 1, 2 and 3

D: 1 only

Q4. Which of the following words is closest in meaning to the word Sprawled?

Ops: ☒ A: Stretch

B: Strangle

C: Excursive

D: Ramble

Please move this
window away from

Passage-4

XYZ is said to be one of the most _____ 1 _____ and open countries in the world and its constitution is a _____ 2 _____ to this very fact. Recently in many countries, democratic governments in the course of conducting a major review of their national constitutions _____ 3 _____ to curtail, if not abolish the death penalty.

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 1

Ops: A: Sensitive

✓ B: liberal

C: flamboyant

D: orthodox

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 2

_____ to curtail, if not abolish the death penalty.

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 1

Ops: A: Sensitive

B: liberal

C: flamboyant

D: orthodox

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 2

Ops: A: Evidence

B: Witness

✓ C: testimony

D: declaration

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 3

Please remove this admission entry from

C: flamboyant

D: orthodox

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 2

Ops: A: Evidence

B: Witness

C: testimony

D: declaration

Q1: Mark the best option for blank 3

Ops: A: have decided

B: could have decided

C: are deciding

D: have been decided

A yellow rectangular box with a red text overlay that reads "Please move this window away from".

Please move this window away from

B: could have decided

C: are deciding

D: have been decided

Working together is always complicated now that many people only see each other through video and don't run into each other in the hall base it's even harder.

Collaboration is essential because the people on the job have to talk to each other directly. if they need to rely on you and other managers to solve problems for them, everything slows down.

Make sure people know you expect them to collaborate. Your employees should know whom they should be collaborating with and what the vehicles are. Is it best for them to have a regular one-on-one with some people? should they have a regular cross functional team meeting with certain projects? if people are confused about who they should be working closely with or if they are getting responses help them figure out what the problem is and fix it your highest and best used as a leader is to help people uncover and then resolve obstacles to working together.

Collaboration requires great communication from peers while building and maintaining good relationships that lead to trust. To support that make sure you have mechanism for people to meet

Please move this window away from

used as a leader is to help people resolve obstacles to working together.

Collaboration requires great communication from peers while building and maintaining good relationships that lead to trust. To support that make sure you have mechanism for people to meet

Informally even when its virtual. Have a budget for them to treat themselves to a nice lunch with a colleague Anchorage informal coffees or virtual Happy hours.

People also need to know they will get credit for their work on cross-functional projects. One of the CEOs I worked with sends out of weekly slack note which highlights the projects accomplished and names everyone who played a role. Another CEO I work with has a "Fridays are for wins" meeting. It used to be in person and now it's over video. Each person on the 40 person team nominates someone else who had a 'win' that week. It's a fun way of building trust by praising others as well as giving others credit publicly for their work.

It takes coaching. Coaching is essential to help people see what they are doing well and to help them grow and improve. Both of these are important positive feedback builds confidence and you will always have to manage someone closely if they are not actively building new skills. I have

Please move this window away from

Informally even when its virtual. Have a budget for them to treat themselves to a nice lunch with a colleague Anchorage informal coffees or virtual Happy hours.

People also need to know they will get credit for their work on cross-functional projects. One of the CEOs I worked with sends out of weekly slack note which highlights the projects accomplished and names everyone who played a role. Another CEO I work with has a "Fridays are for wins" meeting. It used to be in person and now it's over video. Each person on the 40 person team nominates someone else who had a 'win' that week. It's a fun way of building trust by praising others as well as giving others credit publicly for their work.

It takes coaching. Coaching is essential to help people see what they are doing well and to help them grow and improve. Both of these are important positive feedback builds confidence and you will always have to manage someone closely if they are not actively building new skills. I have noticed that leaders are often and comfortable proactively coaching and that's a truer now since most meetings take place over video or on the phone.

1) Which of the following most accurately States the main idea of the passage?

Please move this
window away from

People also need to know they will get credit for their work on cross-functional projects. One of the CEOs I worked with sends out of weekly slack note which highlights the projects accomplished and names everyone who played a role. Another CEO I work with has a "Fridays are for wins" meeting. It used to be in person and now it's over video. Each person on the 40 person team nominates someone else who had a 'win' that week. It's a fun way of building trust by praising others as well as giving others credit publicly for their work.

It takes coaching. Coaching is essential to help people see what they are doing well and to help them grow and improve. Both of these are important positive feedback builds confidence and you will always have to manage someone closely if they are not actively building new skills. I have noticed that leaders are often and comfortable proactively coaching and that's a truer now since most meetings take place over video or on the phone.

1) Which of the following most accurately states the main idea of the passage?

- a) What is essential?
- b) Working together is complicated
- c) You as a problem solver
- d) The importance of collaboration

Please move this
window away from

noticed that leaders are often and comfortable proactively coaching and that's a true reality and you most meetings take place over video or on the phone.

1) Which of the following most accurately States the main idea of the passage?

- a) What is essential?
- b) Working together is complicated
- c) You as a problem solver
- d) The importance of collaboration

2) According to the passage which one of the options must be true?

- a) collaboration is hard to monitor thus the need for an encouragement system
- b) we can all work individually without collaboration
- ☒ c) Collaboration has become harder than before
- d) Trust is not necessary while collaborating

3) Which of the following do not follow from the passage?

Please move this window away from the screen

d) The importance of collaboration

2) According to the passage which one of the options must be true?

a) collaboration is hard to monitor thus the need for an encouragement system

b) we can all work individually without collaboration

c) Collaboration has become harder than before

d) Trust is not necessary while collaborating

To: 178R1A/

Type message

3) Which of the following do not follow from the passage?

a. leaders who understand that coaching are not uncomfortable in proactively coaching their team

✓ b. None of the mentioned options

c. building and maintaining good relationships that lead to trust is key to collaboration

d. Even in virtual settings informal meetings are necessary

4) Based on the passage which one of the following statements would the other agree with?

Please close this
window away from

- c) Collaboration has become more important
- d) Trust is not necessary while collaborating

3) Which of the following do not follow from the passage?

- a. leaders who understand that coaching are not uncomfortable in proactively coaching their team
- b. None of the mentioned options
- c. building and maintaining good relationships that lead to trust is key to collaboration
- d. Even in virtual settings informal meetings are necessary

4) Based on the passage which one of the following statements would the other agree with?

- a. Giving credit to multiple people for the same successful project is ok
- b. Employees who do not find ample guidance at the workplace may struggle to grow and do better at their jobs

a) Neither 1 nor 2

b) Both 1 and 2

c) Only 1

d) Only 2

Mark the option best suited to replace the underlined portion of the sentence given below —

• I am tired as I am running since morning.

a) I was running

b) I had been running

c) I will be running

d) I have been running

Q) Mark the option which best expresses the given sentence in indirect speech

- b) I had been running
- c) I will be running
- d) I have been running

Q) Mark the option which best expresses the given sentence in indirect speech

- “What did you see at the beach?” Charlie asked Denver.

- A) Charlie Denver if she saw anything at the beach
-  B) None of the mentioned options
- C) Charlie asked Denver that she saw anything at the beach
- D) Charlie has done what she had seen at the beach

Q) Mark the option best suited to replace the underlined portion of the sentence given below

- Finally everyone decided to put at the bar

- A) Charlie Denver if she saw anything at the beach
- B) None of the mentioned options
- C) Charlie asked Denver that she saw anything at the beach
- D) Charlie has done what she had seen at the beach

Q) Mark the option best suited to replace the underlined portion of the sentence given below

- Finally everyone decided to put at the bar

a) put out in

b) put at

c) put off at

 d) put up at

Q) Mark the option which best expresses the given sentence in indirect speech

- b) put at
- c) put off at
- d) put up at

Q) Mark the option which best expresses the given sentence in indirect speech

- He said to her, "Is not your name Julie?"

-  a) he inquired whether her name was not Julie
- b) he said that her name was Julie
- c) he asked if her name was not Julie
- d) he asked why her name was Julie

Q) Mark the option which best expresses the given sentence in indirect speech

• Kyrie asked "how long will it take to travel from India to America?"

 a) Kyrie asked how long would it take to travel from India to America

b) Kyrie out how long it should take to travel from India to America

c) Kyrie asked how long it will take to travel from India to America

d) Kari asking how long must it take to travel from India to America

Q) Read the sentence given below and decide whether it is a fact or inference or a judgement

• The county also has biomedical waste management rules for the safe and scientific disposal of biomedical waste.

➤ Fact

Q) Read the sentence given below and decide whether it is a fact or inference or a judgement

- The county also has biomedical waste management rules for the safe and scientific disposal of biomedical waste.

Fact

➤ Inference

➤ Judgment

Q) Sentence given below forms a coherent passage when arranged logically choose the option which give the correct sequence.

- a) A short man appearing as a long with the stick in his hand
- b) And having butterfly shaved moustaches
- c) In a survey conducted
- d) Was chosen as the greatest of actors of all time.

A) Bcad

➤ Inference

➤ Judgment

Please review this document before printing

Q) Sentence given below forms a coherent passage when arranged logically choose the option which give the correct sequence.

- a) A short man appearing as a long with the stick in his hand
- b) And having butterfly shaved moustaches
- c) In a survey conducted
- d) Was chosen as the greatest of actors of all time.

A) Bcad

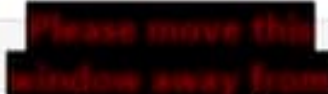

B) Abcd

C) Dbac

D) Cabd

Q) a sentence is broken into the following parts marked the options containing the correct sequence of these parts to get the complete sentence.

Please move this
window away from

Q) a sentence is broken into the following parts marked the options containing the correct sequence of these parts to get the complete sentence.

1. And taking an Air India flight
2. The men interacted with several people
3. After visiting Italy
4. Out of Vienna to return to Delhi

A. 2314

B. 2134

C. 3241

 D. 3142

Please move this
window away from

C. 3241

D. 3142

Q) The sentences given below form a coherent passage when arranged logically choose the one which gives the correct sequence

A. And exercises for good health

B. And outdoor games

C. Entertainment includes indoor games

D. Reading story books for knowledge.

a) CABD

b) ABCD

c) CDAB

d) CDBA

Please move this
window away from

Q) Mark the best option which is a replacement for the underlined part of the sentence so that the new sentence is grammatically correct clean and effective

He was interviewing for the company but never thought he would end up with an offer letter

 A. No correction

B. He would end into

C. He would end

D. He would end with

Q) Determine if the statement given below is a fact, inference or a judgement

Wow, good to see you five years later, it's been a long while since we sat down to have a chat, won't you say?

Please move this
window away from

- A. No correction
- B. He would end into
- C. He would end
- D. He would end with

Q) Determine if the statement given below is a fact, inference or a judgement

Wow, good to see you five years later, it's been a long while since we sat down to have a chat, won't you say?

 a) Fact

b) Inference

c) Judgement

Please move this
window away from

Q) Replace the underlined word to form a meaningful statement

First I ate dinner than I slept

a) When

b) While

☒ c) Then

d) Since

Please move this window away from

- a) When
- b) While
- c) Then
- d) Since

Q) Mark the option which best expresses the given sentence in indirect speech

Charlie said "I am very angry now".

Ops: A: Charlie said that he would be angry now.

B: Charlie said that he is very angry then.

 C: Charlie said that he was angry then.

D: Charlie said that he is very angry now.

Q) Read the statement below and decide whether it is a fact, inference or judgment

Q) Read the statement below and decide whether it is a fact, inference or judgment

The painting made by John Nelson during the war is one of the most beautiful paintings in the world.

Ops: A: Fact

B: Inference

 C: Judgment

Q) Mark the option best suites for the underlined portion of the sentence given below.

The teacher suggested that we ought to be punctual, isn't it?

Ops:  A: Shouldn't we

B: aren't we

C: none of the options

utiful

D: is it

Q) Which part of the sentence below has an error in it?

When water supply is normal,/we can't care/ about the importance of w_N.

Ops: A: When water supply is normal

B: No error

C: about the importance of water

✓ D: we can't care

that the new sentence is grammatically correct, clear and effective.

The facts presented in the recent reports indicate that unstable times is ahead for those who ploughed money to Bitcoin.

Ops: ✓ A: indicate that unstable times lie ahead for those who have ploughed money into Bitcoin

B: indicates that unstable times lie ahead for those who have ploughed money into Bitcoin.

C: indicate that unstable times are laying ahead for those who have ploughed money into Bitcoin.

D: indicate that unstable times should lie ahead for those who have ploughed money into Bitcoin.